HB No. 942

Abstract: Provides for the appeal of actions taken to enforce the laws under the jurisdiction of the Board of Ethics, including giving the Board of Ethics a limited right to appeal final decisions of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board.

Present law (R.S. 42:1142) provides relative to appeals of decisions of the Board of Ethics. Provides generally for appeal to the Court of Appeal, First Circuit. Present law authorizes any party aggrieved by an action of the Board of Ethics, or a panel thereof, the right to appeal to the Court of Appeal, First Circuit within 30 days after action taken by the board becomes final and that a final decision of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board may be appealed within 30 days after mailing of the notice of the decision, or if a rehearing is requested, within 30 days after mailing of the decision on rehearing. Present law further provides for appeals to a civil service commission or higher education management board in specific situations involving disciplinary actions taken against certain employees. Provides general procedures. Present law (R.S. 42:1142) further provides that decisions of the adjudicatory board or a panel thereof may be appealed in the same manner as decisions by the Board of Ethics.

Proposed law retains present law except in each instance regarding appeal also makes it applicable to action taken by and final decisions of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board. Proposed law removes the general language about appeals of decisions of the adjudicatory board or panel thereof being the same as those of decisions by the Board of Ethics.

Proposed law further authorizes the Board of Ethics, upon unanimous vote of its members present and voting, to appeal questions of law of a final decision of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board to the First Circuit Court of Appeal within 30 days after the signing and mailing of the notice of a final decision, or final decision on rehearing of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board. Defines "final decision" for this purpose as the decision and order of the adjudicatory panel of the Ethics Adjudicatory Board on the final disposition of the entire matter the Ethics Adjudicatory Board was required to hear.

Present law (R.S. 42:1141.1) provides that a declaratory opinion of the board shall be considered a final decision and shall be reviewable by the Court of Appeal, First Circuit as provided in present law (R.S. 42:1142). Present law provides that any refusal by the Board of Ethics or any panel thereof to issue a declaratory opinion and any preliminary, procedural, or intermediate action or ruling is subject to the supervisory jurisdiction of the appellate court as provided in the present constitution (Art. V, §10). Proposed law retains present law

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
