

Existing law provides for the salaries of several district judges of judicial districts, including the civil district court judges and the criminal district court judges of the parish of Orleans; the magistrate of the criminal district court for the parish of Orleans; the judges of the juvenile court of the parish of Orleans, the parish of Caddo, the parish of East Baton Rouge, and the parish of Jefferson; and the judges of the family court of East Baton Rouge Parish.

Existing law prohibits any additional salary, compensation, emolument, or benefit from the state or any of its political subdivisions except for certain reimbursements.

Prior law authorized reimbursements for lease payments and expenses of no more than $500 per month incurred for vehicles used for official purposes provided that the vehicle was leased in accordance with the provisions for public bid.

New law increases the authorized reimbursement amount from $500 to $600.

Effective August 1, 2012.
